Class History

When Eel River Township School at North Salem, Indiana opened September 2, 1938, there were twenty-four pupils enrolled in the first grade. They were: Sherry Corne, Frank Cram, Betty Davidson, Geneva Dozier, Clayton Everson, James Everson, William Frazier, Robert Gilmore, Ruth Gretta Glick, Carrie Gordon, Mary Gordon, Virginia Heagy, Devon Jackson, Elizabeth Key, Juanita Lee, Rosemary Morgan, Donna Prichard, Joan Pritchett, Marjorie Rudder, Bobby Seaton, Samuel Vickery, Marthadel Wiles, James Wilson, and Joe Wyeth. During the year George Osborn, William Vann, and Mildred Fred Johnson enrolled. This made the total of twenty-seven pupils. Mrs. Irene Robbins was our teacher.

When school started in the fall of 1939, the first grade had moved one door north in the grade school building. Our new teacher was Mrs. Merle Soots. The pupils were the same except for Frank Cram, Geneva Dozier, Clayton Everson, James Everson, Virginia Heagy, and Rosemary Morgan, who we lost during the summer. The new pupils were: Lonard Basham, Jack Voorhis, and Josephine Moore. Claude Westerfield enrolled during the year. This made a total of twenty-two pupils.

In September of 1940 we moved across the hall to grade three. The new pupils were Tom DeLashmit, Eugene Lowe, and Jessie Lee Murphy. We lost Robert Gilmore, Elizabeth Key, and Samuel Vickery during the summer. During the year Verla Reese, James Patton, and Jane Lynch enrolled. The teacher was Mrs. Mary C. Daly.

When school opened in the year of 1941 we found ourselves in the fourth grade. We had lost Jessie Lee Murphy and Robert Gilmore during the summer. James Patton and Grace Ward started the year with us but later left. Charles Estridge, Geraldine Steembergen, Bobby Rikken, and Barbara Lee Simon came during the year. Frank Whitely came in during the year and then left later. Our teacher for this year was Mr. George Eller.

On September 1, 1942, there had been several pupils to move away but we had gained several new ones. The ones we lost were: Sherry Corne, Thomas DeLashmit, Jane Lynch, Robert Neff, and Marjorie Watson. Alberta Lovins and Robert Woodall started the year and later left. Patricia Hamblen started the year with us also. During the year we gained Robert Meyers, Silas Gibbons, and Lonard Basham. Thomas DeLashmit came in again with us during the year. Miss Elizabeth Moore was our teacher for this year.

When school opened in the fall of 1943 there had been several pupils to move away. They were: Charles Estridge, William Owens, Robert Seaton, Lonard Basham, William Frazier, and Eugene Lowe. Gladys Edwards, Alberta Lovins, Billy Gerald, Mary Shockency, Eleanor Shockency, Robert Dale Summers, and Kenneth Freeman. Our home room teacher was Mrs. Fern Cox.

When school opened in the fall of 1944 we found ourselves just across the hall from the previous year under the home room teacher, Edwin Gossett. We had heard the seventh grade was a little harder, but this just made us more determined. We had gained quite a number of new pupils for this year. They were: Joan Lee, Marjorie Page, Mary Stewart, Robert Clampitt, James Gerald, Kenneth Stewart, and Patricia Hamblen, and Rose Van Hook. Glen Lawler, Silas Gibbons, and Billy Gerald withdrew during the year.

In the fall of 1945, we were in the room which had a big "8" on it. This year Sara Heady and Earl Vansickle joined us. Ida Mae Porter and Leon Hicks came later in the year. During the year we had lost Earl Vansickle, Ida Mae Porter, Kenneth Stewart, Bob Clampitt, and Bob Summers. Our home room teacher for this year was Roy E. Jones.

When school opened in the fall of 1946 there were fifteen Freshmen. The faculty for this year was as follows: Dale E. Brock, principal; Roy Jones, Elsie Thompson, Esther Rice, Roberta Miles, Ralph Bunton, and June Kloster. Mrs. Kloster was our sponsor for this year. Earl Hicks was our only new student for this year. We lost William Vann, Kenneth Freeman, and Leon Hicks.

At the opening of school in 1947 there were fourteen pupils enrolled. This year we were on the other end of the initiation. Mr. Ralph Bunton was our coach this year. Don Ward joined us and Patty Hamblen withdrew. Mrs. Esther Rice was our sponsor.

When school opened in 1948 we were jolly Juniors. Mrs. Elsie Thompson was our sponsor. Eleanor Boston, Phyllis Ronk, and Bill Owens joined us. Later in the year we lost Claude Westerfield and Phyllis. Our play, "Don't Look Now", was a great success. We also entertained the Seniors at a reception in the Civic Theater in Indianapolis. Our faculty this year was--Mr. Harbison, principal; Mrs. Thompson, our sponsor; Mrs. Kloster, Mr. Bunton, Mrs. Bales, and Mrs. Rice.

When school opened in 1949, we were dignified Seniors. We sold cards, wrapping paper, napkins, and gave a play, "Simple Simon Simple", to make money for our Senior expenses. The Juniors gave us a very nice reception this year.

On May 7, 1950, our Baccalaureate was held in the Methodist Church. Reverend Chester Hanson was our speaker. On May 12, 1950, our graduation exercises were held in the high school auditorium. The speaker was Reverend Amos L. Boren, minister of the Pleasant Run Parkway Church. We were dressed in blue caps and gowns. Those classmates who went all twelve years together were Joan Pritchett, Marthadel Wiles, Betty Davidson, Juanita Lee, and Jim Wilson.

Farewell Seniors

Seniors, you high school days are now in the past. It is too late to ask yourself, "Am I making the most of my opportunities?" However now is the time to resolve to make the most of the opportunities ahead of you and to seize those that will raise you to a higher level and to pass by those which would drag you down.

During your school days have you shown the traits of co-operation, dependability, initiative, sportsmanship, and square dealing? Those with whom you come in contact are looking for the same traits in you, whether you go to advanced schools or into a job.

As teachers we can no longer go with you but if you will now use some of the "lessons" we have tried to bring to you in the classroom, we shall feel that you are ready to meet the challenge of life with a clear head and a willing hand. When you go through that door marked "push" may you find happiness and success.

Class Prophecy

It is February 27, 1975 and the championship game of Indiana is about to begin. The North Salem Blue Devils and Barnyard Cats, the two top ranking teams of Indiana, are about to clash forces. This being such an important game, I though I would go and see it and by chance see some of my old schoolmates who graduated in 1950.

The auditorium was beginning to fill with people as I stood in line to get my ticket. While I was waiting in line I turned around and my gaze fell upon that famous football star, Bill Owens. As you know after leaving high school Bill went to Notre Dame and played four years of college football. Then he came back to North Salem and captured the heart of Patty Klein and married her. He is now retired and he and his wife are living in Paultucket trying to raise their sixteen children.

As I shoved my way into the auditorium I was startled to hear someone say, "Tickets please". I raised my eyes and there before me stood a slim, handsome, distinguished man. He said, "Hello, don't you remember me? I'm Don Ward." I asked Don how he had ever gotten so slim, (since I had a little extra weight myself), and he said he worked for the Rye Krisp Company and after twenty years of employment there his boss convinced him to try the Rye Krisp reducing plan. Now instead of trying to get rid of weight Don says he is trying to get rid of the girls that are always chasing him.

I was trying to find a seat and who should holler and wave at me but the former Betty Davidson, now married to Vernal Leathers. As we chatted along, I learned that Betty had liked English so well in high school under her teacher, Mrs. Thompson, that she had decided she would take up teaching. She is teaching English at North Salem where her twin daughters are attending the third grade.

I finally found a seat but before I could sit down I was tapped on the back by a skinny, raw-boned young man whom I didn't recognize at first. It finally came to me that this was the powerful Jim Wilson who had graduated with me. He then told me that he had been married to Norma Bruneless but had divorced her after their fourth child and had turned the children over to some organization. He is now working as a hod carrier for the "Will Make It Stick" Construction Company.

Since my seat was now taken I decided I would go buy me a sack of popcorn before I looked farther. I happened to run into Earl Hicks, the most famous of all the basketball players of his time. He told me that he had married Janet Owens from Jamestown upon graduation and he and his wife had then gone to Poker Flat, Texas where he is a professional gambler. Just then I felt some sharp teeth sink into my leg. Bonnie said "Never mind, it is just one of the kids sharpening his teeth."

I finally found a seat on the twelfth row of the bleachers and I sat down to watch this important game. At the start of the game North Salem got the first two points. Just then someone started breathing down my neck. I turned around and what did I see? A big batch of bushy red hair. I just about dropped when I saw that the red hair belonged to Bob Meyers. We started talking then and he told me he had become an electrical engineer because his wife, the former Shirley Hilt, thought it was a good paying job, and believe me he really needs plenty of money to feed the mouths of his eleven children.

The game was so exciting that it hardly seemed as though the first quarter should be finished. My popcorn had made me thirsty so I got down from my seat and made my way toward the concession stand. When I got to the stand I noticed a tall, gangling figure whom I thought I recognized. Whom do you think it was? Eleanor Boston! I spoke and asked her what she had been doing. She said she was teaching school. I then asked her if she was married. She said, "No, my long lost love, Bill Owens, has married someone else and I am an old maid school teacher."

As I was walking across the floor to get back to my seat, whom should I run into but Juanita Lee who was being followed closely by a man whom I recognized at once as Cary Grant.

Upon questioning I soon found out that after graduating instead of marrying Wayne Kidd as everyone imagined, Juanita had entered Patricia Stevens Modeling School. She did so well that she was soon on her way to Hollywood. Cary fell in love with her on first sight. They are now married and living on a chicken ranch in Barnard where Mr. Grant is town marshall. They have been married two years and have four children--quadruplets of course.

When I had finished talking to Juanita I again started on my way to my seat. Just then my attention was attracted by a fued between a set of twins. Becoming interested, I walked up to the place where the twins were fighting and who should be trying to break it up but my old classmate Sara Heady. I immediately congratulated her. She then told me she had married a very wealthy man by the name of Arthur Godfrey and had had the twins. Unfortunately Arthur died but he willed his beautiful estate to her. She then became interested in singing and is now the top singing star of the Metropolitan Opera House.

At that moment I heard someone whistling and shouting and I looked up in the crowd and I saw a girl waving her arms. I thought she was waving at me but at that same moment I saw a group of boys go by with a great big "C" on their ball sweaters. The girl ran down from the bleachers and I saw that it was Barbara Simon. The boys had already gotten out of sight so Barbara stopped and told me that since her sister Betty had gotten married she had started going over to Danville to Canterbury College and was now taking sister's place with the Canterbury boys.

By the time I found my seat again the game was half over. I sat down and at that moment a stunning girl in a black satin dress said, "Hello". I was surprised, for this stunning girl was Joan Lee. She told me that she now works as a fashion designer in New York and designs clothes worn by the movie stars in California. She told me she wasn't married but she is kept busy dating some very famous movie stars.

The game flew by and my it was exciting. The score at the beginning of the fourth quarter was 40 to 10 with North Salem ahead. In the last three minutes I got up to put on my coat and I felt something cold on my neck. I knew someone behind me had spilled something. As I turned around and looked straight into the face of Marthadel Wiles. She asked me if I remembered her and I said, "Yes, I remember the kids calling you Mert!" She told me to look at her son who was playing on the North Salem team. He was a tall, gangling kid and he looked exactly like his father who was Wayne Ferguson.

The gun went off and I started on my way out of the gymnasium to get my car and head for home. Just then a big station wagon drew up to the curb and a girl yelled at me. I went up to the car and it was no one else but the former Joan Pritchett. She told me instead of having a career she had married Roy Lamber of New Winchester. They have one son named Leroy, since Joan didn't like the lonely name of Roy. She told me she and her family can be seen on television every Thursday night at 8:30 on a comedy program entitled "The Busy Lamberts".

I found my car and on my way home I thought that this day had indeed been a happy one.

A decorative vertical line runs down the center of the page. At the top is a fleur-de-lis. Below it is a long, thin, wavy line. At the bottom is a detailed illustration of a classical oil lamp with a flame. The lamp has a rounded body with a scalloped band, a fluted base, and two ornate handles. The title "UNDERCLASSMEN" is written across the middle of the page, superimposed on the central line.

NORTH SALEM HAS NEW COACH

Mr. Noel Peters is the North Salem coach. He was born on April 23, 1919, in Washington Co., Indiana. He attended high school at Hardinsburg, graduating in 1937.

After completing high school he enrolled in Indiana University and went the 1937-1938 school year. In the 1938-1939 school year he went from I. U. to Central Normal for a year. For the next two years he taught the intermediate grades at Hardinsburg.

In 1941 he entered the service and served four years in United States and Europe. He was in action in Europe, being in the battle of the Bulge, and six other major battles.

Upon returning from service he entered at Canterbury and finished his remaining two years. He also has eighteen semester hours finished at Butler working toward his M. A. degree.

In 1947-48 he took a position as teacher and coach in the North Salem grades. He had a fine record with the Junior High boys. In the 1949-50 year he took over as coach of the high school. He also teaches social studies and physical education. He has had a fairly successful season, winning about half of his games. We hope next year he has another successful season. Good luck, Mr. Peters.
